
Table of Contents

Executive Summary	v
Preface	vii
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
Chapter 2: Design Guidelines	3
Principles of transit-supportive development	3
Planning and design guidelines	4
Chapter 3: Zoning Regulations	7
Principles for implementing transit-supportive zoning	7
Zoning for primary transit network	7
Zoning for pedestrian districts	9
Other implementation tools	9
Chapter 4: Economic Incentives	11
Assessing the potential benefits of TOD development	12
Estimating reductions in vehicle use at TODs	13
Case study: Washington County traffic impact fee	15
Chapter 5: Plan Changes	17
Methods	18
Conclusion	19
Appendix A: Planning and Design Guidelines for Transit Supportive Districts
Appendix B: The Pedestrian Neighborhood
Appendix C: Model Zoning Regulations for Implementation of Transit Supportive Development Concepts
Appendix D: Traffic Impact Fees and Transit-Oriented Development
Appendix E: Additional Maps for Chapter 5: Plan Changes
Appendix F: Acknowledgments

List of Tables

Table 3-1	Classification of Land Uses for Transit Corridors	8
Table 3-2	Zoning Controls for Different Types of Development Districts	10
Table 4-1	Weekday Average Trips for Some Land Use Categories	15
Table 5-1	Similar Land Use Designations	18

